More about our time together.

Gilmont will provide space for you to grow into intentional silence comfortably whether you are a veteran or a novice.

Participants will receive a small guide prior to arrival to explain expectations and to make suggestions as to how to guide yourself through the experience.

Meals will be served in silence in community.

Practice spaces will include: art supplies and instruction, guided prayer stations, camp fires, labyrinths, worship.

Silence will be broken for:

An hour meeting with a Spiritual Director each day.

Simple reading of the Psalms.

Rest space will be in our comfortable lodge rooms. Most opt for a single room, but you may stay with a roommate in the lodge or choose to stay in the Cabin.

All invitations to participate in the retreat offerings are optional.
